

Position: Chemical Packers / Bulk Operators

Position Description:

Chemical Packers / Operators are responsible for packaging all blends and products according to batch tickets.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Sets up and start all packaging operations under their responsibility.
- Obtains and understands all documentation for packaging batches. Ensures correct packaging components are used with the appropriate chemical compound being packed.
- Pumping and gravity feeding chemicals into specific containers in predetermined quantities.
- Operates equipment (pumps, hoses, valves, scales, etc.) safely.
- Monitors packaging material usage for each packaging job assigned are done correctly with right weights.
- Ensures all packaging materials are returned to inventory and have the right quantity and in good condition.
- Follows batch ticket and work order instructions regarding batch packaging, labeling, weights, components, and any additional requirements.
- Cleans equipment when needed.
- Refers issues/problems to lead/supervisor person(s).
- Communicates with material handlers and mixers when materials are needed and batches are ready to pack.
- Completes all paperwork and batch ticket documentation in a timely manner.
- Observes safety requirements set forth by company.
- Performs other related duties as required.

Position Requirements:

Requirements:

- High School Diploma or GED equivalent.
- Must be able to read/comprehend written and oral instructions in English, including safety rules, operating procedures, product recipes, material identification, etc.
- Able to manipulate up to 100 pounds.
- Must have mathematical skills to add, subtract, multiply, and divide. Able to perform these operations using weight and volume measurements.
- Good troubleshooting skills.
- Previous experience in chemical operations preferred.